

A classic, good enough to just drink on those really chilly nights. But, this one is special because it makes sore throats feel better. Officially, that makes this a medicine and medicine is good for you.

Ingredients

- $\frac{3}{4}$ cup very hot water
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup bourbon whisky (and don't use the cheap stuff, life's too short)
- 2 - 3 tablespoons clover honey
- juice of $\frac{1}{2}$ fresh lemon
- one lemon slice
- one cinnamon stick
- three cloves

Directions

Mix all the liquid ingredients in a large mug or a really heavy glass. Garnish with the cinnamon stick, cloves, and the lemon slice. Serve hot. Serve twice.
